

Social Responsibility: Valuing Diversity

Students value diversity, defend human rights, advocate for others, and act with a sense of ethics in interactions, including online.

With some direction, I can demonstrate respectful and inclusive behaviour. I can explain when something is unfair. I can advocate for others. I take action to support diversity and defend human rights, and can identify how diversity is beneficial for my community, including online.

	When We Were Alone by David Alexander Robertson. 2016	Explaining when something is unfair.
	Red Parka Mary by Peter Eyvindson	Learning from those different from you. Different doesn't need to be 'scary'
	Spirit Bear by Jennifer Harrington	Inclusive of others even if they are not the same as you.
	Little Bear's Vision Quest by Sylvia Olsen	Not judging based on appearance, Being kind to everyone
	What's the Most Beautiful Thing about Horses? by Richard Van Camp / Georges Littlechild	Being proud of our own uniqueness, understanding similarities and differences.

	Raven Tales - 26 Graphic Novels Edited by D. Bouchard and D. Booth	“These graphic novels are built on traditional stories that develop a sense of community, responsibility, respect and interconnectedness of life” Click here for individual story details.
	Raven Tales - Teacher's Guide Edited by D. Bouchard and D. Booth	Recommended. Connects Raven Tales to First Nations cultures and other international and aboriginal cultures with similar stories. Story summaries. Delineated themes i.e. Living in Community, Respect...
	Sometimes I Feel Like a Fox by Danielle Daniel	We are all different and respond differently emotionally
	Totem Tale, A Tall Story from Alaska by Deb Vanasse	Valuing the attributes of others, diversity.
	Seven Sacred Teachings Niizhwaaswi gagiikwewin by D. Bouchard and Dr. J. Martin	Humility, Honesty, Respect, Courage, Wisdom, Truth, Love
	I Like Who I Am by Tara White	Explores prejudices and racism
	I am Not a Number by J.K. Dupuis and K. Kacer	Explain when something is unfair and advocate for others and defend human rights.

	Sweetest Kulu by Celina Kalluk	Believe in Yourself, Love, Help others, Be gentle, Be creative, Find joy, Be empowered, Be patient, Be kind
	Sharing Our World: Animals of the Native Northwest Coast by Garfinkel Publications	Valuing diversity by celebrating different strengths and skills.
	Lesson for the Wolf by Rachel Qitsualik-Tinsley	Each of us is unique with unique gifts.
	I am Raven by D. Bouchard and A. Everson	Each of us is unique with different traits shown in the characters of the spirit animals.
	Gray Wolf's Search by Bruce Swanson	Recognizing that everyone is important and valuing each individual
	Dreaming In Indian: Contemporary Native American Voices. Edited by L. Charleyboy and M.B. Leatherdale	Recognizing cultural identity. Stereotypes.
	Set of seven books by Katherena Vermette	The Seven Teachings Stories are inspired by the Seven Sacred Teachings of the Anishinaabe—love, wisdom, humility, courage, respect, honesty, and truth. These stories are set in urban landscapes, Indigenous children tell familiar stories about home, school, and community.

	When I was Eight by Christy Jordan-Fenton	Meaning of a name, unjust treatment of a child.
	Not My Girl by Christy Jordan-Fenton	Theme of injustice. Mother and father showed differences in acceptance of daughter, inclusion
	Shin-chi's Canoe by N. Campbell	Unjust treatment.
	Shi-shi-etko by Nicola Campbell	Unjustly taken from familiar environment